Luxury Restrooms

by Ensuites On Site

Ensuites On Site would like to introduce our new range of Luxury Spa Restrooms that can cater for any event, wedding, engagement, birthday or corporate event.

These luxurious restrooms offer a new level in sophistication, quality and style to the event industry not seen before.

Our new restrooms contain all their own waste and water and can run for minor events on just solar and battery power and with the connection to power and water they can easily cater for longer events and the air conditioning units are able to be utilised.

So, take a quick look at our flash new units below and see which unit would suite your next event or function and lock it in for a restroom experience like no other.
